

Community Farm Connection Membership

Join us in our commitment to support small farmers and improve consumer access to locally grown food.

Your membership donation will directly support the following programs and help us plan for the future:

- Farmhouse Table Cooperative CSA: By paying in advance for a weekly share of produce from a network of local farmers, CSA subscribers directly increase the profitability of small, diversified farms. Subscribers receive a selection of the freshest seasonal produce and farmers benefit from consumer feedback and a guaranteed weekly market for larger amounts of each week's harvest.
- Farm-to-Chef Program: This new program improves access to seasonal produce availability and assists in distribution from a network of small local farms to local chefs, caterers, restaurants, school lunch programs and other buyers.
- Farmhouse Table Produce Market: An old-fashioned market, open to the public with a full range of locally grown produce, meat, cheese, dairy products, honey, nuts, grains, preserves and other handmade food items, Farmhouse Table provides a direct link to some of our smallest (and finest!) local growers and producers.
- Marketing Assistance: CFC offers marketing assistance to farms, chefs, and other groups highlighting local farms, farm products, events, classes, demonstrations and workshops. We also work in public and farmers market development to create more ways for farmers and consumers to stay connected.
- Think Local, Buy Local, Eat Local: A campaign to raise consumer awareness about the many economic, environmental and quality-of-life benefits when we buy from independent, local businesses and farms.

Your membership donation is fully tax-deductible and comes with the following "Thank You" benefits:

- Priority status for annual CSA sign-up
- Annual newsletters, email updates and advance notice of events through our mailing list
- "Think Local, Buy Local, Eat Local" decal
- Annual member's winter potluck...come and help us with new ideas on how to do our job even better!
